

September 2010 Employee of the Month

Police Division:

Danny Sutton

It was noted that Officer Sutton is a professional who fully embraces his role of Police Officer. Those that work with him have noted the professional demeanor in which he conducts himself. Officer Sutton is responsible for training new officers that join the Spring Lake Police Department's team. His commitment to excellence sets the standard for our new officers. Officer Sutton was recently awarded the Meritorious Medal for placing himself in harms way in order to apprehend those responsible for a burglary at a local business. Officer Sutton is commended for his exceptional performance and devoted service to the Town of Spring Lake. Because he is a role model for young men and women as well as being an asset to the Spring Lake Police Department, Officer Sutton was selected as Employee of the Month, August 2010.

Administration Division:

Carrie DeGarmo

It is noted that Carrie goes above and beyond her primary functions. She is a hard working employee who often assists with programs and events that promote the Town. Recently, she implemented the National Night Out event for the Town. This event is a national program that promotes the police-community partnership. The implementation of events such as this continue to place the Town in a positive light. Carrie DeGarmo is commended for her talent and outstanding vision to implement innovative means to merge the Town Departments and the citizens. Because of the continued enthusiasm to promote the great Town of Spring Lake, Carrie DeGarmo was selected as Employee of the Month, August 2010.

Public Works Division:

Steve Wing

It is noted that Steve is one of the hardest working employees that the Town has. His work ethic is admired by all that come in contact with him. In his demanding maintenance field, Steve has single-handedly improved the appearance of the Town Hall and the various landscape areas within the Town. When assigned a task, Steve dogmatically pursues the completion of the project but not without much thought and consideration regarding the best outcome for the project. Steve is consistently described as an employee who is courteous, thoughtful and who displays a friendly, positive attitude. Because of his dedicated service and his commitment to excellence, Steve Wing was selected as the Employee of the Month, August 2010.

Saul Kent

It is noted that Saul is an employee who often assists in duties that are well outside of his normal responsibilities. He performs these tasks without prompting. Saul's diverse qualifications allow him to be a multi-functional employee who can easily perform his duties as Meter Reader as well as assist the Revenue Billing Supervisor with administrative functions. His professional attitude combined with his many talents, make Saul a valuable part of the Town. In the recent past, Saul assisted a citizen who suffered a fatal heart attack. Mr. Kent assessed the situation and contacted 911 for medical assistance. To honor Saul Kent for giving his time, support, and assistance to those employees and citizens in need, he was selected as Employee of the Month, August 2010.

Fire Division:

Jonathan Faircloth

It was noted that Jonathan is a hardworking employee who goes above the normal to assist his fellow employees. Jonathan mirrors this behavior in his private life and it is said that he will do anything he can to help anyone at anytime. During the procurement of the Fire Department's newest fire truck, Jonathan researched and assisted with the selection of the equipment and vehicle needed to better serve the Town. Often Jonathan spends his spare time performing such tasks. Jonathan Faircloth is commended for his generous commitment of time and support to the continuing endeavors of the Fire Department to better serve the citizens of the Town of Spring Lake. Because he is considered a "great example of a Fireman," Jonathan Faircloth was selected as Employee of the Month, August 2010.
